

DEVELOPMENTAL ENGLISH (CCDE)

---

CCDE 105 N Effective Communication Skills 4 Credits (4)

Instruction and practice in basic communication, to include written and oral presentations. Develops thinking, writing, speaking, reading, and listening skills necessary for successful entry to college and university classes. Provides laboratory. RR applicable. (3+2P)

Provides Lab

View Course Outcomes

CCDE 110 N General Composition 4 Credits (4)

Instruction and practice in preparation for college-level writing. Students will develop and write short essays. Provides laboratory. Traditional Grading with RR. (3+2P)

Provides Lab*Learning Outcomes

1. Avoid the most common and problematic editing errors, including spelling errors, use of inappropriate verb form, and major sentence errors;
2. Demonstrate the ability to successfully plan an essay with a detailed outline that includes a limited thesis statement and planning for sufficient content for well-developed body paragraphs;
3. Identify at least two types of plagiarism and the most common strategies for avoiding them.

View Course Outcomes