

SPEECH & HEARING SCIENCE (SPHS)

SPHS 2110 Introduction to Communication Disorders 3 Credits (3)

This introductory course provides an overview of common speech, language, and hearing disorders in children and adults including etiologies, characteristics, prevention, identification, assessment and intervention. The course provides an overview of the field of speech-language pathology and audiology. Repeatable: up to 3 credits.

Learning Outcomes

View Course Outcomes